

OTTO FORENSIC ACCOUNTING

We investigate and analyse the situation and report on the outcome of the matter in a clear and concise format

WHY WOULD YOU NEED US?

Legal professionals and businesses rely on forensic accountants and expert accountants to provide independent advice in a variety of financial and accounting aspects. We have the requisite financial, forensic and litigation accounting experience to provide a clear and concise expert report for use in litigation, mediation or arbitration.

WHAT WE DO?

We provide a range of services in the following areas:

- Commercial Litigation
- Family Law and De Facto Matters
- Personal Injury Actions

WE DELIVER

Forensic work of a high quality is often critical to an early settlement, potentially saving considerable time and money.

We provide an estimate of fees and timetable to complete the matter providing clients and solicitors with precise, reliable and cost effective advice.

WHY CHOOSE US?

We only specialise in Forensic Accounting and the provision of expert evidence.

Our expertise and experience across a wide variety of businesses and industries means we can combine our forensic skills with that knowledge to assist in reaching a claim.

We investigate and analyse the situation and report on the outcome of the matter in a clear and concise format.

With increases in alternative dispute resolutions, we understand the importance of providing reliable and substantiated figures to aid discussions between the legal professionals to assist with an early settlement.
